

Understanding the Customer Segments & Players in Health Care

Assignment: Work Table to map out the personas involved in the use and purchase of your Health Care Product/Service

Remember to name your submission "Team Number- Customer Segments"

Persona	Define group features	Average Income generation per annum (if known)	Size of the group	Comments (add references and point form notes of importance)
Patient	(demographics; geography, gender, therapy frequency, etc.)	Average take home income and average expenditure on health care	How many patients with the group features of interest
	Individuals with disabilities in Uganda, including varied demographics such as age groups, genders, and geographical locations both rural and urban and Patients require regular therapy or medical attention.	Average income: UGX 3,000,000 per year (USD 800) Average healthcare expenditure: UGX 600,000 - 1,200,000 per year (USD 160 - 320)	Estimated 5.8 million people with disabilities in Uganda (about 12.4% of the population)	Medication adherence is a significant issue for individuals with disabilities. Symptom tracking can aid in better management of chronic conditions. Customized exercise routines and educational resources can improve overall health outcomes. References: https://devinit.org/resources/uganda-disability-data-landscape-economic-inclusion-persons-with-disabilities/introduction/

Understanding the Customer Segments & Players in Health Care

Persona	Define group features	Average Income generation per annum (if known)	Size of the group	Comments (add references and point form notes of importance)
	Description: (geographical location; private or public; etc.)	Annual payouts per year for the service/product of interest.	How many insurers are supporting the product/service

Understanding the Customer Segments & Players in Health Care

Insurer (private, government, other)	Private insurance companies, government health schemes, and NGOs. Nationwide, with a concentration in urban areas. Both private and public insurers.	Private insurers: Varies widely; some plans can cover up to UGX 5,000,000 per year per individual (USD 1,340). Government insurers: Coverage through schemes like the National Health Insurance Scheme (NHIS).	There are about 10 major private insurers and several government schemes like the National Health Insurance Scheme (NHIS).	Insurers are interested in solutions that reduce long-term healthcare costs. Mobile health apps can demonstrate cost-effectiveness by improving patient outcomes and reducing emergency visits. References: https://ira.go.ug/insurance-sector-posts-strong-growth-in-2022/ https://www.ncpd.go.ug/
Persona	Define group features	Average Income generation per annum (if known)	Size of the group	Comments (add references and point form notes of importance)

Understanding the Customer Segments & Players in Health Care

Purchaser (hospital, patient, doctor, dentist, public health agency, etc.)	Is this a purchasing agent, education, size of the purchasing group; volumes; number in the jurisdiction of interest, etc.	Total annual purchasing for the given product or service	Number of purchasers in the jurisdiction
	Hospitals, public health agencies, clinics, and individual healthcare providers in Uganda.	Total annual purchasing ranges from UGX 10 billion to UGX 50 billion (USD 2.7 million to USD 13.5 million), depending on the size and type of healthcare institution.	Over 180 hospitals and numerous clinics and healthcare providers.	Hospitals and clinics seek tools to improve patient care and operational efficiency. Mobile health apps can be integrated into existing healthcare management systems. References: https://www.uhfug.com/

Understanding the Customer Segments & Players in Health Care

Persona	Define group features	Average Income generation per annum (if known)	Size of the group	Comments (add references and point form notes of importance)
Health service deliverer (professional (dentist, pharmacist, chiropractor, doctor, etc.), hospital, pharmacy, etc.	(geographical location; number; type; age; specialist or not specialist, etc.)	Total number procedures done annually for the product or services of interest?	Number of service deliverers in each group (single professional; hospitals; consortiums?)
	Healthcare professionals such as doctors, nurses, pharmacists, and therapists; institutions like hospitals and clinics in Uganda. Providers are located throughout Uganda, with a higher concentration in urban areas. They include both specialists and general practitioners.	The total number of procedures can vary widely but it's in the hundreds of thousands annually when considering the entire healthcare system.	Thousands of individual professionals, over 180 hospitals, and numerous clinics and pharmacies.	Healthcare providers need reliable tools to manage patient care, especially for chronic conditions and disabilities. A mobile health app can assist healthcare providers in monitoring and managing their patients' health more effectively.

Understanding the Customer Segments & Players in Health Care

Other players?	Defined as needed
----------------	-------------------	--	--	--

Understanding the Customer Segments & Players in Health Care

Assignment: Work Table to map the external influencers on the cost and delivery of your Health Care Product/Service

Influencer	Description of the influencer	Average revenue generation per annum (if known)	Number of the group in your jurisdiction/ area of focus	Comments (add references and point form notes of importance)
Government health ministries	Government ministries such as the Ministry of Health Uganda.	Significant budgets often exceeding UGX 1 trillion (USD 270 million).	One primary ministry at the national level with various departments and agencies.	Government policies and funding significantly influence healthcare delivery. Support from the Ministry of Health can facilitate widespread adoption of mobile health apps.
Regulators	Regulatory bodies overseeing healthcare standards and practices	Revenue generation is typically from government funding and fees from healthcare providers	Multiple regulatory bodies, including the Uganda Medical and Dental Practitioners Council.	Regulations ensure the safety and efficacy of healthcare products. Compliance with regulations is essential for the successful deployment of mobile health apps.
Regulatory consultants	Consultants specializing in healthcare regulations and compliance.	Varies widely depending on the scope and scale of consultancy projects.	Several consulting firms and individual consultants.	Consultants can assist in navigating regulatory requirements and ensuring compliance. Their expertise is crucial for the successful introduction of new healthcare technologies.

Understanding the Customer Segments & Players in Health Care

Distributors	Companies distributing healthcare products and technologies	Revenues ranges from UGX 500 million to UGX 5 billion (USD 135,000 to USD 1.35 million), depending on the size of the distributor.	Several key distributors operating nationwide	Effective distribution channels are essential for reaching healthcare providers and patients. Distributors play a critical role in the supply chain of healthcare products.
Influencer	Description of the influencer	Average revenue generation per annum (if known)	Number of the group in your jurisdiction/ area of focus	Comments (add references and point form notes of importance)
Manufacturers	Companies manufacturing medical devices and healthcare technologies.	Large manufacturers can have revenues exceeding UGX 10 billion (USD 2.7 million).	Limited number of manufacturers within Uganda, with many products imported	Partnerships with manufacturers are important for the production of mobile health apps and related devices. Local manufacturing can reduce costs and improve supply chain reliability.
Vendors supporting the manufacturer with services, components, and assembly	Vendors providing essential services and components for manufacturing healthcare products.	Varies widely based on the services and components provided.	Several vendors supporting the healthcare manufacturing sector.	Collaboration with reliable vendors ensures high-quality production of healthcare products. Their role is crucial for the assembly and maintenance of medical devices.
Competitors	Other companies offering similar healthcare solutions.	Can vary widely; competitors might range from small startups to large multinational corporations.	Several competitors, both local and international.	Competitors drive innovation and improvement in the healthcare sector. Understanding the competitive landscape is important for positioning the mobile health app effectively.

Understanding the Customer Segments & Players in Health Care

Other players?	Any other relevant stakeholders such as non-profits, international organizations, and advocacy groups.	Varies based on the organization's size and funding sources.	Numerous non-profits and international organizations operating in Uganda.	These players can provide additional support and advocacy for the adoption of mobile health apps. Collaboration with non-profits and international organizations can enhance the reach and impact of the healthcare solution.
-----------------------	--	--	---	---